Dear Ms Poon

Megan obtained her PSLE results last Friday and we can't express our feelings in words here.

We would have wanted to thank you personally and the teachers of Pri6G, Ms Rai and Ms Azlina and indeed, the previous teachers who taught her but Daphne was overseas and I was engaged in work.

Without the teachers, Megan would not have obtained her current score as we hardly coach her. Can we trouble you to also extend our heartfelt gratitude to the English (I think it could be Ms Devi or Ms Prema but I am kind of mixed up now) and HMT teachers (including Ms Koh, HOD).

Thanks once again

Hi Mrs Sing,

I am writing to specially thanks the principals and teachers that have been teaching Soh JunRen before. I am very grateful for all the efforts, guidance and patients given to Junren. Without all these, I am sure that he is not able to come to this stage.

I wish to apologize to those teachers that had been hurt by Junren before. I hope you can help me to send my gratefulness to all the principals include you, Mrs Sing and teachers, include Mrs Raja, Miss Pang (who had left DLSS), Mrs Tan Chong (who had left DLSS), Mr Nigel Tan, Miss Annie Tan, Mdm Tey, Miss Jasmine See, Miss Eu, and those who had taught Junren before.

I am sorry if I had missed out anyone in the list as I am not able to remember all the teachers.

Last but not least, thank you everyone of you and wish everyone an early Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

I will still be seeing everyone again.

Thank you!!!!!!!

Regards

Dear Mrs Sing,

Hope you are having a good day today. I am writing to you because I am not able to attend the PSG meeting on Thursday.

Thank you for introducing CCA into school hours. It is a courageous move as parents could be thrown off by it, but you are doing what is good for the children. As a PV Aunty who loves the children very much, it is great that the school takes this holistic approach. Many were not attending CCAs and were missing out on learning important life skills. So yes! Am all for it.

In his time at De La Salle, Zachary has been a happy child. He will be performing at the percussion item this Friday at Prize giving ceremony and I am so thrilled that he has extended himself and accepted this novel experience. At the first rehearsal, he actually walked out because he took the instructor literally that he could want out. That afternoon, Ms Neo (the music coordinator) and Annie texted me and I had the opportunity to reframe the incident for him. It was a valuable teaching moment and I would like to commend 3 teachers - Ms Neo, Annie and Mdm Angie Tan who was at the rehearsal. Thanks to their quick feedback, Zachary is able to achieve this milestone.

On a similar note, I would like to commend Mr. Hong, Zac's Maths teacher for the last 5 months. He drilled the children so well with his numerous worksheets and clear categorisation of the maths problem sums that I was confident that Zach was ready for the exams. We did not do anything to prep and true enough, Zachary did really well for the Maths exams.

Thank you for being the fine leader you are and I am always praying for you, your team and the children at school. Also that the catholic culture will strengthen from day to day!

Blessings,
Melissa
